

9) Programme Outcomes

For CBCS

- Critical Thinking & Analysis: Apply sociological frameworks to analyses social phenomena, considering historical context, contemporary relevance, and power dynamics.
- Research & Communication: Conduct original research, including formulating hypotheses, collecting and analyzing data, and effectively communicating findings.

- Diversity & Inclusion: Understand and appreciate diverse social identities, perspectives, and experiences, and advocate for inclusive and equitable societies.
- Global Awareness: Analyze local and global social issues within interconnected systems, recognizing the impact of social, economic, and political forces on different populations.
- Ethical Reasoning: Use ethical principles to evaluate social issues, assess potential consequences, and advocate for social justice and responsibility.
- Effective Communication: Communicate complex sociological concepts to diverse audiences, adapting language and approaches for different contexts. P.O.-7.
- Professional Preparedness: Apply sociological knowledge and skills to various career paths, such as graduate studies, research, public service, and other fields requiring critical thinking, research, and communication abilities.
- Professional Preparedness: Apply sociological knowledge and skills to various career paths, such as graduate studies, research, public service, and other fields requiring critical thinking, research, and communication abilities.

For NCCF

- Student will be able to explain social facts and society relates concepts.
- Student will be able to define and explain social concepts, social facts and student will be able to express empirical observations with sociology concepts.
- Student will be able to define and explain main characteristics of social institutions.
- Student will be able to convey the historical development of sociology.
- It also provides a foundation for the other more detailed and specialized course in sociology.
- The course is intended to introduce the student to a sociological way of thinking. It provides an understanding of the discipline of sociology and sociology perspective student will be able to define sociology and demonstrate nature, scope and subject matter, relationship with other social science.
- Acquaint themselves with the basic concept of sociology like society, community, association, institution, social structure, culture, status & role, Norms & values.
- Explain social groups.
- Know the basic social institution like family, Economy, Polity kinship and religion.